

What we do at BogBean Theatre Company Summer Camp

When you join BogBean Theatre Company Summer Camp expect a week full of creativity, learning, and most importantly, fun!

Here you will explore different Drama techniques and activities with both of the fully qualified and practising Drama Facilitators, including: Drama games, improvisation, role-play, devising, set design and much more.

About BogBean Theatre Company

BogBean Theatre Company Summer Camp was set up by two fully qualified and practising Drama Facilitators.

Ciara Cassoni qualified as an Associate of London College of Music and Drama and has a Masters in Dramatherapy from the National University of Ireland, Maynooth. Ciara works as a Drama Facilitator in Kilbeg National School in Meath and has worked in Drama Schools in Dublin, including the well known National Performing Arts School (NPAS). Ciara has also facilitated workshops and directed with Navan Theatre Group.

Cuan Muyliaert qualified with a Masters in Applied Drama from University College Cork. He also has a Diploma in Speech and Drama from Dublin Institute of Technology (D.I.T.) He is currently working on two separate Drama projects. One with The Wheelchair Association Navan, and with Midway Navan he is working on a project for the Irish Performing Arts Festival in Cork.
